Courage begins with a prayer.

Written by A.K. Miller | Illustrated by William "Bubba" Flint

Clancy is a clumsy young camel whose insecurities lead him to believe he is not good enough. When chosen for Cameltown's Christmas show, he reluctantly prays about his fears and discovers that God gives courage when we are afraid.

- Playful, bouncing rhymes made for reading aloud
- A gentle conversation starter about prayer, insecurity, and courage
- Faith-centered Christmas storytelling for ages 4-9
- Giftable paperback and keepsake hardcover editions
